"Rollins College is dedicated to the kind of liberal arts education which fosters the personal and social development of the individual as much as the intellectual achievement. It is therefore a basic aim of the college to provide an environment which will help students to develop into mature responsible adults."

The purpose of this year's Tomokan is to catch every aspect of this process and place it between the covers of a book. The following pages are in honour of all those who make Rollins the liberal arts college that it is: the administration, the faculty, and, of course, the students.

ORGANIZATIONS

Rollins organizations give students the opportunity to meet people and become involved with activities outside the classroom. The many groups on campus strengthen the programs of the college and allow student participation in all areas of campus activities.

AWARDS

Rollins recognizes outstanding members of the college by nominating them for special awards. Who's Who Awards are given to students who demonstrate leadership, community service, and excellence in academics. Sullivan Awards are made by the Sullivan Awards committee and are granted to Rollins students of strong and outstanding character. O.O.O.O. Awards are made secretly, so only the students who receive these awards realize their significance.

CHI OMEGA

It hardly seems a year had passed since my last return, nevertheless, it was once again time to make my visit to THE HOUSE. B.K. had brought back a new drink from summer called a sucker punch. Old Dave Babcock had a farm, and on that farm he had a certain muppet. B.J. had Frank, then Bev, then Kyle, but now Bev is back so he'll hang low for a while. Kevin always jumped on them whatever his state, but the real question was, "What about Kate?" Girls, booze and bringin' 'em home was the story of X, and it was well known. When Julie Mist dropped her lace, Captain Zero was always there to catch it in the face. Herbicide ate well this year: red snapper, cornbeef, and hash. Meanwhile, Coke-Ass was considering making ludification customary at all family gatherings. Peabs we all know was very hard-core, just ask him about swan-diving off the third floor. Pie was always horny, enternally up, and when he found no bait you could find him cooking sup. Harry Peter went for it all but the only thing that stopped him was the wall. O.D. was at the track one day and he heard the starter say to the jockey, "Saddle up bitch!" Old man Flach had a chick on third ready to misbehave, but too baa, he had to call time-out for a shave. Disco Sux, I told Clitron my bro, but way up there he didn't seem to know. Camstra was always just plain "sens"less. Sandtraps always got Bake dirty, but McSchlong still always got his birdie (at Lum's). The kid had never gotten any bites. What a Wadd! Petry gave "Big O" the play, "down and out on dos." The "Big A" kept having a little falling out of Loftus action. Right O! Baum was always either running, playing tennis, or boxing, but was really only concerned with keeping Randy handy. When C.B. had nothing better to do, you'd always find him suckin' on his chew. Dave Peppy was a Sig Ep, which no one can deny, but when he saw how great it was, he became a Chi Psi. The Leprechan moved away from destruction this year with his new double bed he came ever so near, martinis and MD he shall never fear. Mac hung low for most of the fall, during football games Roger stood tall, then one night, Florida State gave a call. Stan dropped out and made the triangle complete, even the robes couldn't stop him with the Grinch in heat. Now a forty year old man stands upon his feet. Red ends up this triangle of "real Chi Psis," his loft, his stereo, the cost wasn't high. No matter what the challenge, he always gets by.

As I reached the end of my tour, I saw the future faces to whom I could only say, "If you ain't a CHI PSI, you ain't s__!"

KA

The boys of ole KA have battled through yet another year of dames, damage, and drunkeness. The mansion on the sunny southern shores of Lake Virginia stands a little taller with the intramural football title under its roof. Once again we managed to evade the usual wrath of Dean Pease. Tom Wells, and the rest of the Rollins task forces. With only three seniors having survived the entire four year term, one might think that there won't be much change. Say What!?! Gene, Lupo, and Clay, Christ the place will never be the same.

Clay managed to avoid any major trips to the hospital this year, but he sure got BEANed fall term. He was last seen sippin' on a Bud while gliding to the beach on Derf his everfaithful skateboard. Chewey took the red guy train to New York for an extended tour of the gutters with Willard Dulany, but somehow he managed to find his way back to the blender. The mighty moped will be sacrificed in the chapter room after graduation. Gene after four long years of marriage began to contemplate breaking Murphy's law, but gave it further thought when Pam spilled her guts out to him. He has a habit of doing that too.

Keane tried to grease his pan with Pam but Sue mended his ways. Raymond has been passing out the green and the shots. 3 to 1 says you'll be unwrapping more Candy soon. Stuart went exploring in Venezuela, but got lost in a Cave. At 7.14 Matt grabbed a Miller, but he wasn't drinking beer. Kamp FAYed away while Spankey just Hoped he could get his nose Brown. Tex went Goffing again, but his active glands are going to take him to that big putting green in the sky. Duke thinks he can Reed. What a tool! Dick's G.P.A. spurted to new heights when he played Patty-caked in New York. Mikey snagged the KAren from Neil, but they're big boys they can share. Santa pulled up to the Christmas party in a wildcat, and decided that Soccer wasn't his game. And three of our brothers went down-under. Rick got a job and messed up while Chris and Dave got messed up and missed the plane.

Brandon decided to give Winter Park Memorial a break and went back to Texas where he could get some work done. Jeff, can you say Wimpy? We'll give you something Tequila. Goodnight. Scott Phillips continued to be this fraternity's most outstanding member for the second year while the Doctor tried to LEEn into his medical career via JoAnne — a true gynecologist. George and Jill went up the hill to fetch a pack of Camels, but got lost in the Bermuda Triangle. Walt-guy told us that Lisa slept on the floor, but never told us where he slept.

Fred represented our Valencia chapter, Mark was the Fraternity orr, while Al punked out with Roxanne. T.W. started to complain again, but Franky Tom we don't give a damn. We can't forget that Mark Imhoff is back, and we have to thank Paul Harris for getting us through another one. As far our neophite whale dung pledged, how are they going to follow Gene, Joe, Clay and Keane's act!

Remember: No Fat Chicks, No Small Bowls, Sex, and Drugs, and Rock -n- Roll!

KKΓ

Fall term '79 started off with a bang at the Kappa House with a welcome back pink-elephant punch party. But that was only the beginning . . .

We managed to party our way through multiple car washes (at which Kate K. excelled), charity dances, KKG Founder's Day celebration, Homecoming Weekend, a wild and crazy Halloween (Cindy R., has all the green paint come off after that memorable evening?), and three Christmas parties. We swam for leukemia in a Swimmer's Marathon (thanks to Sal and Chi; Ann, have you collected from your sponsors?). The Gainsville pledges may have thought we were a bit rowdy when they all spent the night in our Lodge. Our goal for the year was unity and involvement which we successfully accomplished with our many activities, including an all-sorority tea, a career-planning seminar, trick-or-treating with orphans and Christmas caroling around Winter Park. Sisters in KKG play an extremely active role in the Rollins community as Head R.A.'s, D.J.'s at WPRK, Entertainment director for the Student Association, tutors, investigators, and Sandspur writers. KKG sisters are members of the waterski team, the golf team, Panhel, the choir, and the Professional Development Committee.

Despite everyone's busy schedule, our two social chairmen managed to keep our partying standards high above all; Continental Claudia with white wine in hand is being Americanized by the pool while realesate agent Kevin tried to sell Kathy W. the new Chi Psi living room on a private showing, but she was torn between that and the White House. Our Kappa/TKE charity dance was a giant success, but Mindy wouldn't know . . . she was gorging on whoppers at Burger King, but that led to indigEDrion. Elissa and Beth managed to have a few private cookouts on their balcony while stargazing at H-Evon. Our R.A. Cindy H. gave motherly care to some of the new soccer students; maybe she learned this technique from Becky W. who was concentrating on the old ones (by the way Becky may be contacted at Holt Hall, KNOTT here). Devilish duo Caroline and Robin left a trail of trouble from Chi Psi to Phi Delt and back again, as Suzie, still OD'd, is back on the road to recovery.

Allison is trying out for Disco Roller Skating Derby as Rene sprinkles JIMMIES on her ice cream while drinking beer at Bowleys. Leslie could be often seen riding her bike to get some sherbert late at night while Chelle shot battle rockets out her window until security came and BUFF'dUM. Hope's been keeping a comparatively low profile considering her past performances — don't you like sounds anymore? Phyllis enjoyed hot Toddies at the Xmas formal and Laney could be heard singing "Lord, help the mister who comes between me and my sister, and Lord help the sister who comes between me and my man!" Maite was busy as assistant editor to the yearbook, but still went spearfishing on weekends. Beth W. took a crash course in Louis' swimming classes, but then went on to learn DICKtation. Meanwhile, Lauren has been eating at McDonalds all year long and could often be heard ordering "special sauce on Sesame seed buns". Her roommate, Pam, when not playing with leprecahns or eating Big Big Macs, was watching t.v. in order to win a keg in X-Club's t.v. trivia contest along with Debbie W., Laura W. and Lauren. Laura W. also kept herself busy setting up parties and then roaming the HALLS, and then passing out, like at the Mortician's Ball. Mudgie failed geography again . . . Holland is not in Tampa; Laura H. "Popped" over to Alabama — wonder why? Sue J. no longer resides in 3rd floor K.A. house; her KEANE interest is now in New York. Joanne M. just loves the Land of Cotton, where K.A. men are not forgotten. Watch Out! Jane's armed with artillery, but sometimes cannons backfire. Georgie-Porgie, Puddin' an' Pie did he kiss Jan and make her cry? Welcome back to Moo and Loroo, did you enjoy your Tooheys or Two? Wild Rice always unforgettable experiences; too bad she doesn't remember them. Ricey could often be found with Debbie Wilson rollerskating from party to party, that is when she isn't up bat singing "she's my best friend's girl!" Chi is still using the same sponge she bought in Boston. After being reDICKulous, Kate K. fell for a man with a band on his hand. T.O.'s been buzzing around doing wheelies on her Honda. Sue B., keep smiling, it makes us wonder what you've been up to. Tini, you've got the KURTH again thirh year. Kate B., when not flying away for the weekend was flying around town. Fame and fortune did not change Elizabeth W., but it did change her name. Ann decided to spend at least one fall term on campus this year, but kept losing her shoes, and Sally, our enthusiastic president, has been hired to teach exercises and jogging techniques to the Playboy Bunny Club.

Thanks for a great year Sal! We have the best and the biggest pledge class this year and we know what they will carry on our motto: Give us whiskey, gin or rye, we'll be Kappas 'til we die!

NCM

Non Compis Mentis — adjectives: insanity of unsound mind, dazed and confused, lose one's head, take leave of one's senses . . . shattered!

Once again NCM shocked the campus by making it through the year without going on social probation. N.P., F.S. . . . Not that we didn't try, though. The "party" permit for the "joint" came from the Kid pres. Hoover . . . and parties came too easy. When primate Patti, our resident Bush Baby gets together with P.R., a wild party begins. Want a keg, write a check. Right Mindy (only you see the BILL . . . not nympho Bill). Stern parties were no problemage, right Lynn? Following Hoove Queen Regalski's LGNAF philosophy, we throw wild parties, knowing that its better to burn out than fadeaway. White on Black, Black on White, geri TOLE can rock-out all night! "LIB," says Bean, "it's cool to be a cat." I may spy I-high, but its better that Spazzing out on Dick's and Pete's. If it be-HOOVES you, ask Lisa Simmons about "Hayes"-erdous maneuvers with marble. We don't know if little Margy likes marble cake, but we do know she had a house and couldn't keep it, ate herself to death (at Dunkin' Donuts). Meanwhile, back at fourth floor, the NCM narc, Squeeze-Ann Stein and her ultra-conservative Jaybird, know not where they sleep. But when that morning light comes streaming in, we'll get up and do it again. Our off-campus friends, who were wise enough not to rast Campbell's soup, join us on the HIGHEST floor of Ward, where everybody NOSE temperatures plunge. Our partying little hoovers prefer rush party punch, but we'll settle for chewy brownies and shots of tequilla. We'd rather face a bottle with a worm than an Australian sea full of sharks . . . actually, pubbing it in Ireland doesn't sound bad, or what about flying to Paris for breakfast!

Besides being incredibly socially active, NCM also partipates in various other functions. While achieving high scholastic standing, NCM raises money for several charities, by throwing pies in faces, playing backgammon and cramming for t.v. trivia contests. We sponsor informative guest lectures on prevailing topics such as alcoholism. Avid participation in intramurals keeps us fit for whatever comes up.

All in all, it's all good times. We'ss miss our seniors — Laurie, Sloan, Noel, Laura, Marcia, Alison, Mindy, Bean, Regalski, Linda, Michelle, Ali, Rhonda and especially our adopted sister Max. We hope they will carry the NCM tradition with them forever.

GO FOR IT!

P.S. Will you two make up your mind?! Couch — Do you like it better in your room, in Hooter's room, at the beach, in Tampa, or UNDER THE DOCK!? Deszi — Score: Sharon 4, you NILL. P.S. To our pledges, watch out for that dreaded epidemic. The cure is simple: Work together in the spirit of the fraternity, and BONE before getting BONED!

All My Sisters — A Terrifying Sequel to "All My Children"

As the front door to Fox Hall opens up we see the Phi Mu sisters as they really are. CELESTE is still talking dirty talk to the animals. Hey LAKEFACE: Suca Suca Suca fish! Pissa on you T.C. — go back to Italy. Break 1-9 for that beaver JOY. Is DIANA really so innocent? Only her sisters know for sure.

Now, for a commercial or two.

Avon calling BETH — too bad Dust never does. Maybe Dust is in the wind.

Send your dollars and extra men to C.A.R.E., box #1267.

Back to the show we find that PETRA is still living in her smokey dream. MARGIE'S searching through the weeds like searching for a needle in the haystack. RAINA still hasn't cleaned up her room since the hurricane hit it, but she is feeling no pain. LESLIE, will Bob remember to pack his soccer ball for the honeymoon? Have you heard that DEBI was bit by a vampire late one night. Speaking of night — KATHI, have you really just been watching stars every night during winter term?

Now, for some more commercials.

Hey LAURINE, did the Irish Spring?

We even have own TINA Louise who was flat until she went fluffy

Back to the show we find MAX taking advantage of her last "single" days by keeping us up until dawn. Speaking of DAWN — don't forget to knock when she has a CHIP on her shoulder. CINDY is no longer lowing it — she's lost it. CAROL is still searching for her Chest. If MOM only knew what her BIG BROTHERS are doing to their little sisters!

And, for a final word, you wild and crazy PHIS, you think you have seen it all — just wait until next year!

THE HOGAN BRIGADE

The Wild Boys of THE HOGAN BRIGADE have once again brought fame to the halls of Sigma Phi Epsilon, However, they've been a little slappy as a lot of dirt was uncovered during inspection:

— HICKEY WEBBER proved he's a gentleman by giving the stripper a seat and the stripper in turn served him an Egg McMuffin
— TOMMY FERME climed his stairway to heaven only to engage in the art of Master-Bera-Maxing
— And HOCKEY'S back from Germany . . . WHO CARES?!
— BENNETT learned about anatomy from the dancing radiologist at the Dream House
— Our President CRAIG CRIMMINGS was heard saying, "Hey Baby, let engage in some Ravel's Bolero!" to a group of wild women
— MOMO'S cave was constantly inhabited with wild carniverous beasts!
— BRUCE BENNER, is it Louie or Mrs. Benner? Only Bruce knows for sure!
— Mr. STUD LYDEN is still waking up to hot buttered "BUNS"
— TERRY MADIGAN wants it before lunch, after lunch, before dinner, after dinner . . .
— PETER GRUNOW – the "Phantom Brother" — the telephone is for you
— ROYCE "DISCO" IMHOOF "drew on" Tracy from Australia, but has HELD out for bigger and better things!
— "PURE" DON SCHOLL has served up many dinners but no one will stay for desert!
— ROOROO caught the bus from Nichol's just in time to find a PENNEY on the sofa.
— SCOTT TRACY always "RELY'S" on the "O.B." method!
— NED WILLIAMS may be a one woman man, but he didn't hesitate to let loose an M.C.
— SCOTT BURGESS was found with stacks of reckless driving orations — look out horseshoe, he's driving again!
— PETER ORDAL came out of his hibernation and gave M.L. her initiation.
— JOHN TIERNEY "JT" has composed another love ballad entitled "The Ins and Outs of Dominique"
— BOCK FOLKEN has acquired a classical flare — attending Strauss concerts are the best!
— JOHN BROWN has a "Z" car and likes to talk, but those pictures on your wall are just figments of your imagination
— TOD SAWTELLE "PARTY FRED" is into exhibition these days — dropping straw and blowing chow — that's "PARTY FRED"
— THOR "BAM-BAM" McKENZIE is still pumping iron to build up his body for the ladies — keep pumping BAM-BAM!
— SAM CARPENTER is really into extravagant parties — Black Label beers and a comfortable chair and he's all set.
— CRAIG TIMMINS seems to be putting a lot of time in these days at working out his oar
— JUAN COURTNEY engaged in a little beast action in Australia. What exactly was it?
— Hi, my name is ANDY FOX. A really friendly guy — give him five and he will jive.
— DONNY MOSGROVE – What an athletic supporter! He can really give those balls a work out.
— ERIC THOMPSON and TOM BAIRD still remain married men — a little wife action is what they are into.
— And then, of course, there's TOM COOPER – give me a beer and I'll be happy

Inspection proved to be quite interesting and the men were dismissed. As brother Crimmings, Ordal, and Madigan returned to duty, they heard a voice paging "Mrs. Patti Webber", much to the surprise of brother Webber! What a Wild and Crazy year — look out pledges, your inspection is coming up next year.

Well so for this year has been quite productive with the '76 Pledge Class enjoying Rollins life and preparing to enter the cold, cruel world. All but five are applying to graduate school so they might remain professional students, ah what a life! What they have contributed to Zeta Phi will long be remembered; a majority of them holding offices their senior year, all rushing like hell during the winter of 1980 and all taking an interest in election with their "full vote" even though "it would not affect them." Therefore special thanks are in order for Kurt, Dust, Crazy, Jeff, Embryo, Birdie, Mongo, Rick, Chester, Ox, Eric, Troll, Sandy, Fetus and Gassy, not only for this, but also because we want their cash in the future. The junior class looks good; Colly, Murph, Fred, R.T., Bill-Bo, Buzzard, Father Hoak and Big Meat will have the pleasure of looking at each other for yet another year — what a thrill.

Our massive sophomore class of Spencer, Jordan, and Mister Clean will whip our pledges in line or get whipped into line by our pledges. (Saphomores are always the worst.) Paul, Tom, Martin, Jeff, Buzz, Willis, Steve, Tim, Schaff, Carson, Billy, Bob and Both George's get to bask in the sun and suds for another three years.

We want to congratulate our new brothers and hope that they will continue to help our organization grow better and bigger. We've had our turn, now it's theirs.

A final comment is that we have no regrets about this year. In all truthfulness, we have been enriched by the working association and companionship of each other, and are far richer today because of our times together.

Dickie Schmitt gets first hit but still needs 2999 more.

T.V. Trivia Man Wrapper Bill spends his time with his Van in Joann. Tennis star Chuck DaveSalvo had a good year but couldn't sell a racquet. Rockstar Archie drove 1200 miles to see The Who and made it without Speedo. (Confidentially) Dallas minus five, Donza minus fifty. Where's Budes? Bonegammon? INTRAMURALS

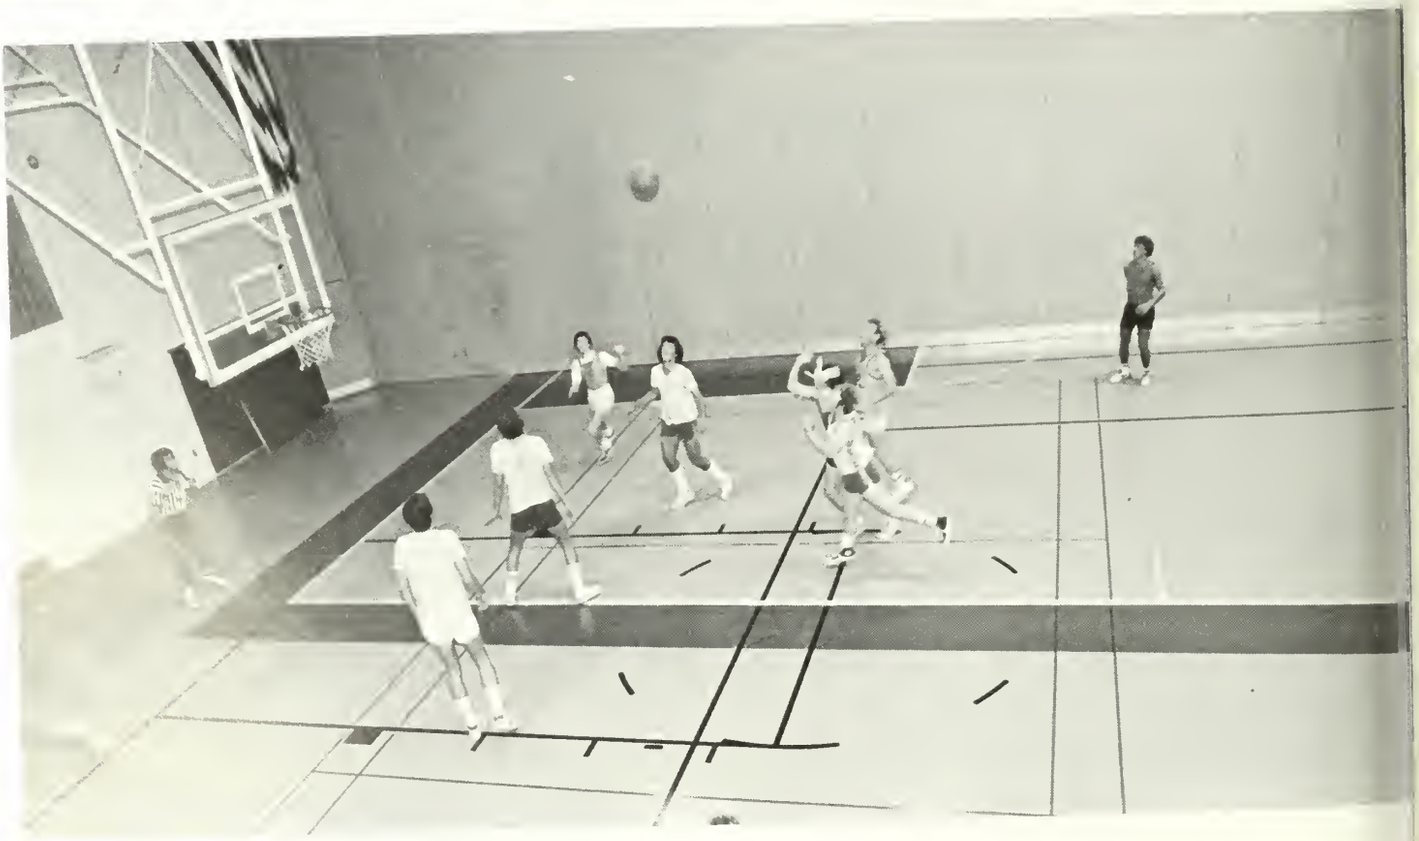
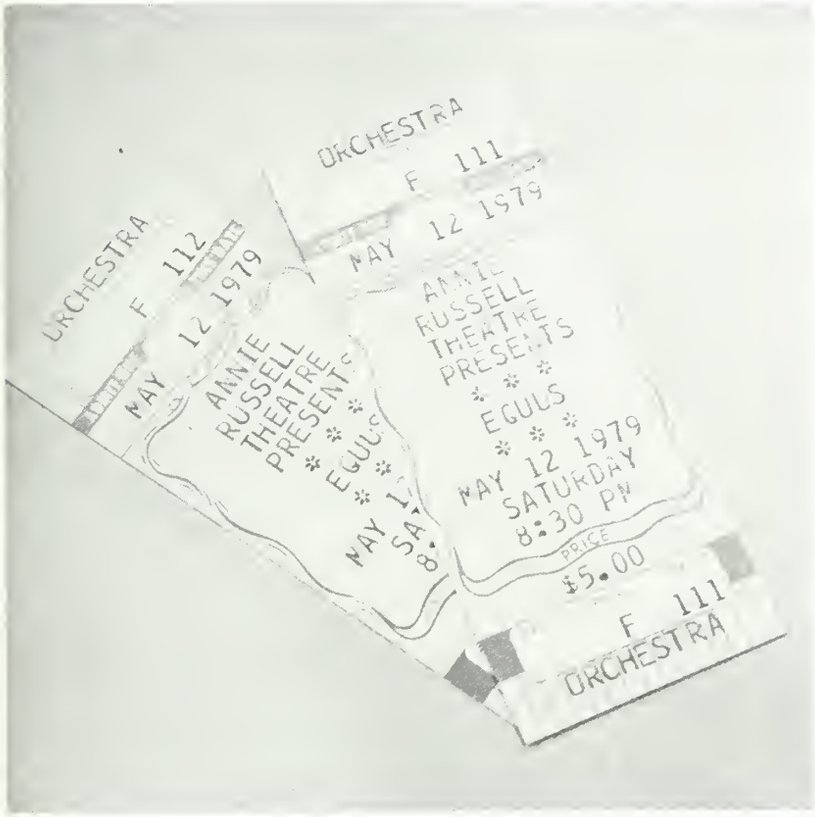
Intramural sports induce a competitive spirit among campus athletes by providing an organized schedule of matches between sorority, fraternity, independent and faculty teams.

KAθ

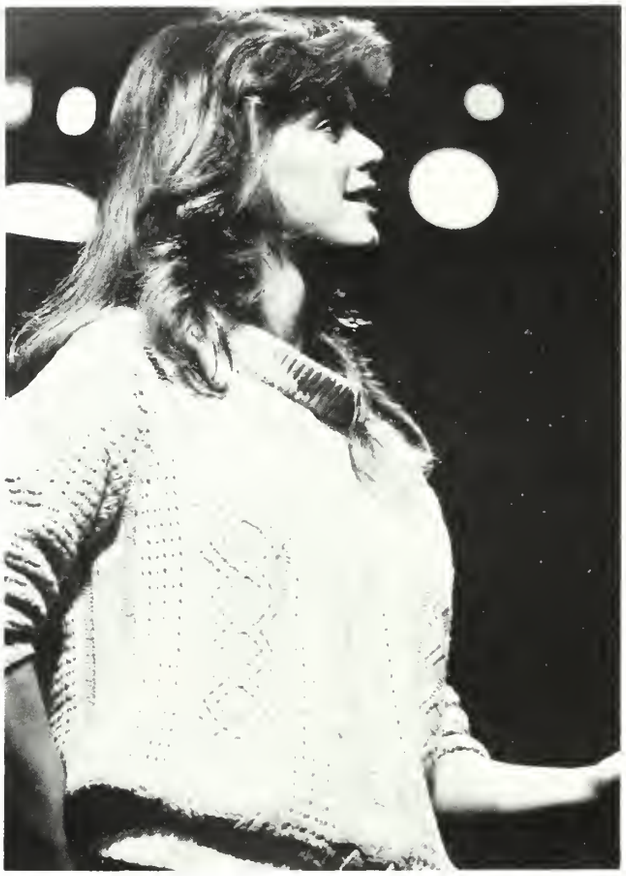


SPECIAL EVENTS

Besides the usual academic and social functions of the college, Rollins offers many special events for student enjoyment and benefit. These activities involve many groups from the entire community and are the events that draw Rollins together as a college. It is the extra opportunity for involvement which these events provide that makes them special.



EQUUS



The Spring 1979 production of EQUUS caused a stir on the Rollins campus as the controversy over the play's nude scene became the basis for local news coverage and student demonstrations. A town meeting and President Seymour's support showed the unity of the college. Each performance of the show was a great success.

BELLA ABZUG

The September 26 lecture by farmer congresswomen Bella Abzug brought Rollins the opportunity to hear an influential woman's views on a number of political topics such as equal rights and international policies.

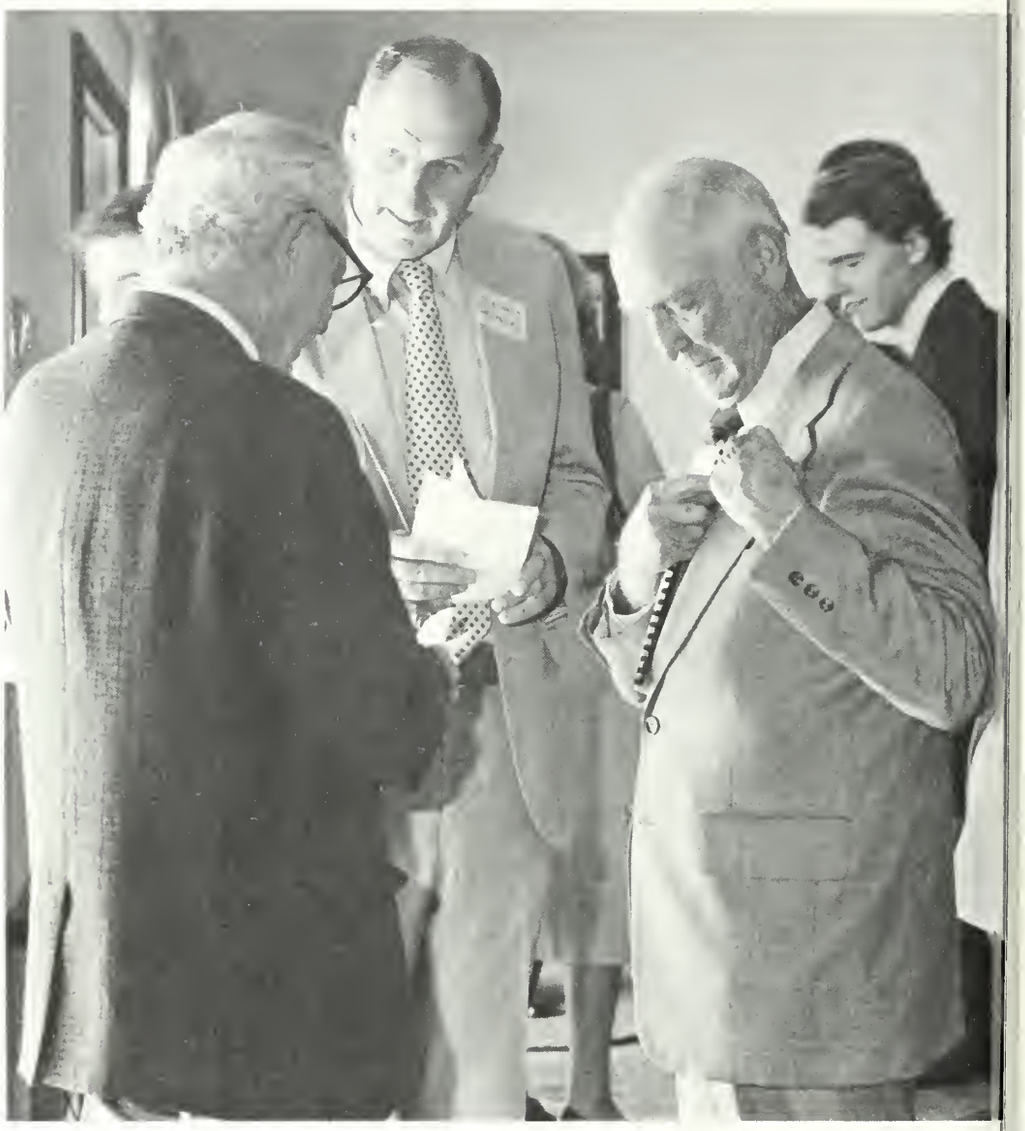
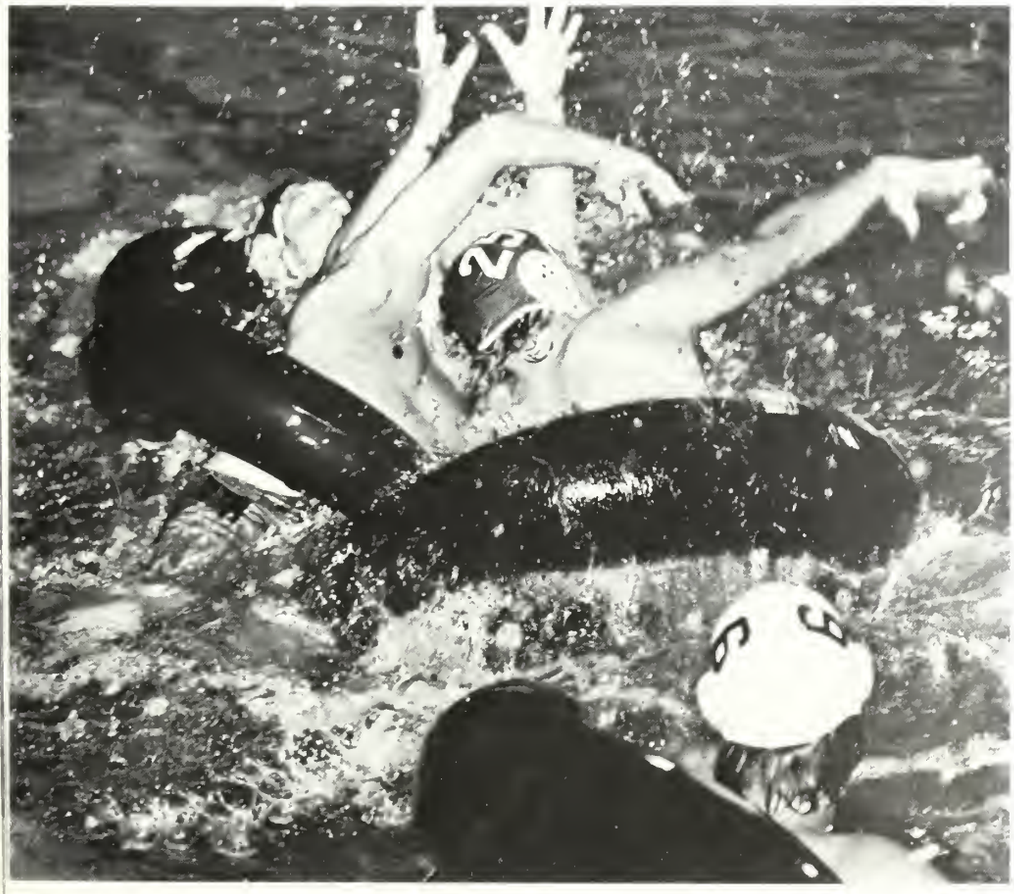
HOMECOMING

HOOKER HALL DEDICATION



The Chi Psi fraternity welcomed alumni and national representatives to the dedication of the new addition to their house. The buffet dinner and cocktail party after the dedication ceremony provided the first opportunity for the use of the new patio and lounge.

MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY WATER POLO GAME



Sororities and fraternities competed in fierce water polo battles to raise money for Muscular Dystrophy. Free beer for the team members and a bottomless keg for dollar contributors were the big draws, but the Greeks put on a good show too!

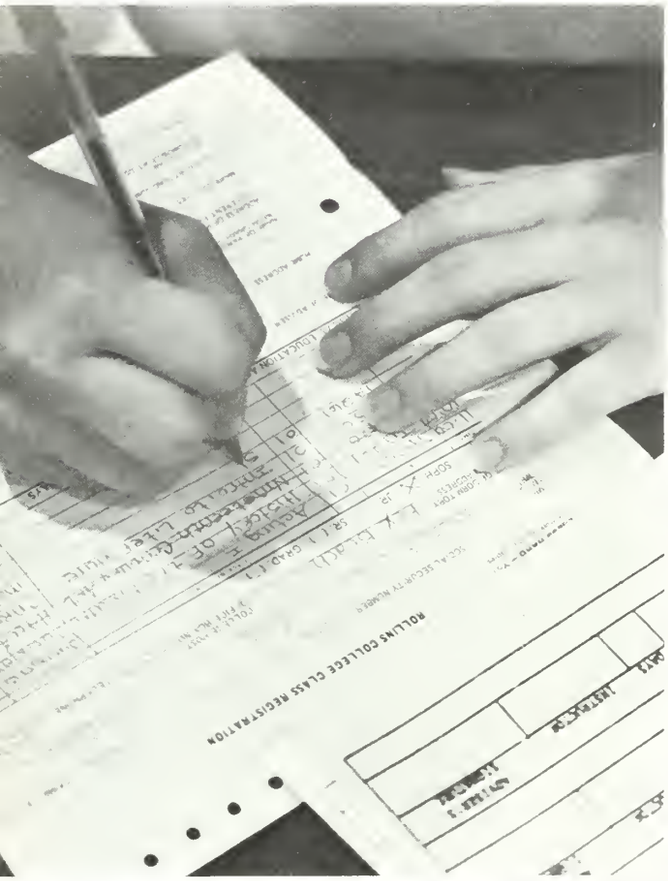
NCM BACKGAMMON TOURNAMENT

NCM sponsored a backgammon tournament in order to raise money for the Cancer Foundation. It provided the opportunity for competition and fun for everyone involved while benefiting the community.

STUDENT-FACULTY FOLLIES

The Student-Faculty Follies was an evening of fun and laughs for the entire school, and of course, it was a great success. Song, dance, and comedy kept the audience entertained as teachers and students displayed their talents on stage

REGISTRATION



At the beginning of each semester, registration causes the field house to become a scene of activity as students try to get that perfect schedule with no Friday class and never an 8:00.

PEOPLE INVOLVED

ADMINISTRATION

The Rollins Administrators work hard to insure the success of the college as an educational institution. In their concern for the students themselves, the administration members make it their business to maintain an awareness of student needs and problems. Their dedication to Rollins insures the college's continued strength.

FACULTY

The faculty members exemplify the purposes of our education. It is through their leadership that Rollins is able to provide a foundation for student growth. In the role of advisor and teacher, the members of the faculty are the basis on which the college achieves the social and intellectual unity that is so necessary for excellence in the liberal arts.

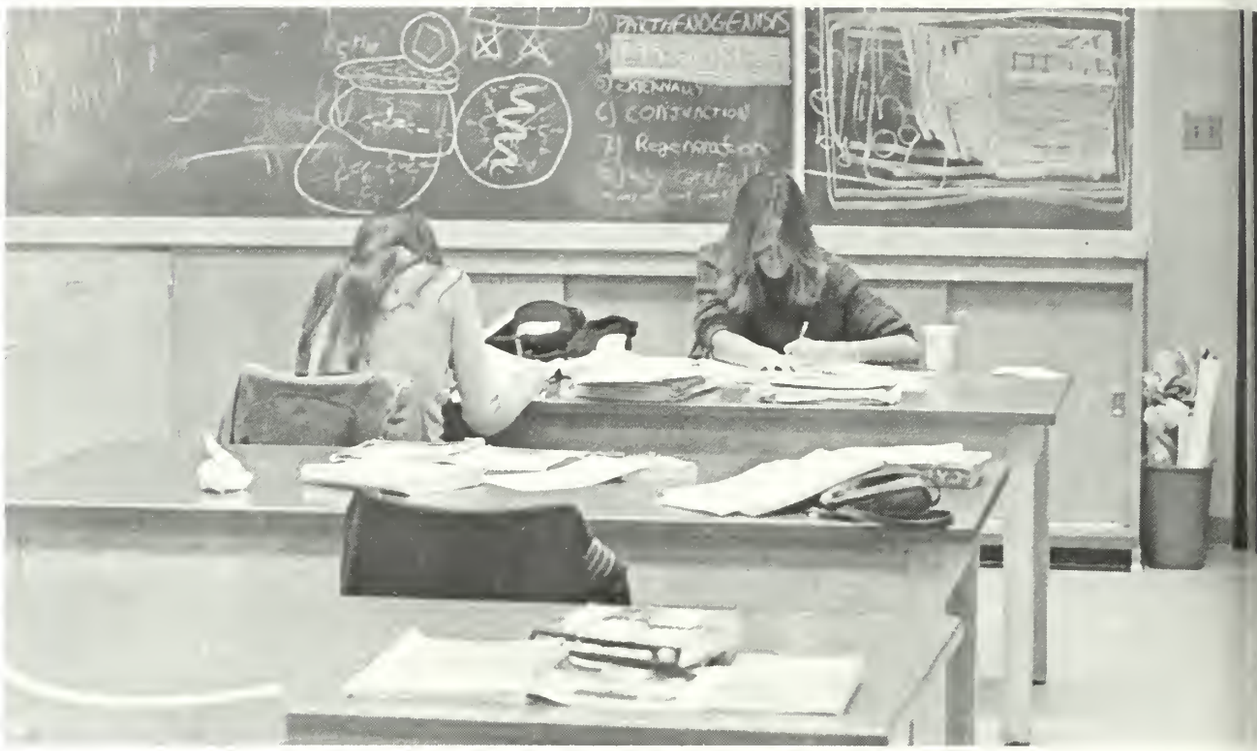
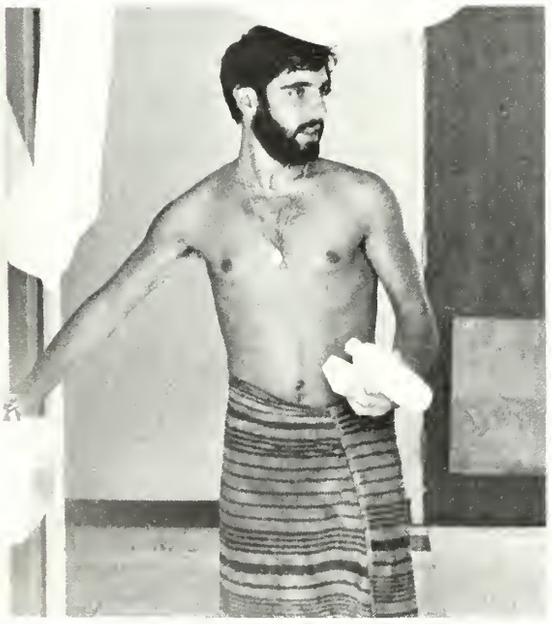
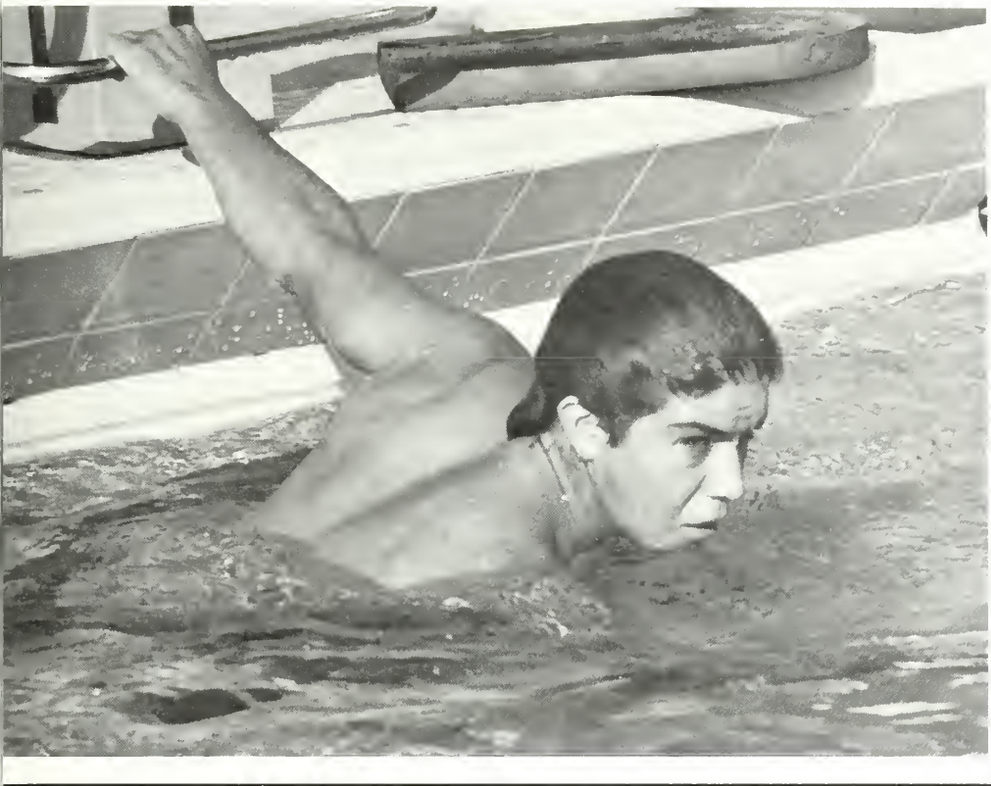
CLASSES







Rollins College is the kind of school that it is partially because of the students enrolled here. One of the school's purposes is to "stimulate our alertness to contemplative and creative adventures of the mind, and they encourage openness to the ideas of others and the development of confidence in articulating our own views with the integrity that the search for truth demands." With this in mind, some students are here merely to prolong their high school years. Others are here to take advantage of the liberal arts atmosphere and the potential it offers. Still others are here for both reasons and more.

The following pages include pictures of most of the students at Rollins — for whatever reason.

Due to a very unfortunate situation, the pictures on these two pages did not arrive in time to make our deadline for class pages. In addition, some people were placed in a class they didn't belong to. We wish to extend our sincerest apologies to these people; it was beyond our control.

As Editor, I cannot begin to Express my gratitude to each and every person who helped to piece this yearbook together. It is not possible to mention them each by name, but there are several specific people that I feel deserve recognition.

A very special "thanks" goes to Rob Cole — his incredible talent, his patience and commitment, and his constant support helped to preserve my sanity and make this finished product possible. (The cover photography is due to his magical ability to "make it rain.")

Maire Carro, my assistant editor, was a godsend, in so many ways. In fact, she was in the inspiration behind the graphics throughout the book and she so often gave me the motivation and desire I needed to keep plugging on.

Mr. Bill Loving was a tremendous help to me with answers to all my questions, solutions to all my problems, and candids and pictures for my theatre section.

I also want to thank the following people, for without their contributions and assistance, this yearbook could never have become what it is:

Jerry Gladstein (Advisor), Bill Kennedy (who handled all my business matters), Kelli Ferror (Photography), Derrick Fuchs (Photography), Laurie Fenlon (Artwork), Marie Brown, Dottie Longenecker, Graphic's Unlimited and, of course, all of my staff.

Thank you, Everyone!
